

Change the following sentences into form of tense mentioned in the brackets.

1. Simon had been studying. (Indefinite future tense)
2. I had played football for a month. (Future perfect continuous tense)
3. Kids are playing in the garden. (Simple Future)
4. You are speaking German. (Past perfect continuous tense)
5. She will get up in the morning. (Simple present tense)
6. My sister is studying in Delhi. (Present perfect tense)
7. John likes to dance. (Indefinite past tense)
8. I went to bed early. (Present continuous tense)
9. They will dance in the party. (Simple past)
10. You are speaking French. (Past continuous tense)

Answers:

1. Simon will study.
2. I will have been playing football for a month.
3. Kids will play in the garden.
4. You had been speaking German.
5. She gets up in the morning.
6. My sister has studied in Delhi.
7. John liked to dance
8. I am going to bed early.
9. They danced in the party.
10. You were speaking German.